Playing in Wheeling Yesterday, and the Effort to Play the Game on Fulton Grounds

DID NOT PROVE SUCCESSFUL

The Owner of the Ground, it is Said, Entered an Objection to This Move of Club.

Saturday afternoon, before Judge Melvin, in the circuit court, on application of certain Island citizens who live in the vicinity of the base ball park, an injunction was granted, en-joining the Wheeling base ball club, individually and collectively, from play-ing ball games there on the Sabbath, Bond was given in the sum of $2,500 by the petitioners, who are backed up by the Federation of Churches and several prominent citizens.

It was announced in the Sunday papers that the Wheeling and Fort Wayne clubs would play the game scheduled yesterday on the grounds just beyond Fulton, and a large crowd was attracted there by the announcement. The game, however, was not played. It is said one of the trustees of the property, which is owned by the Thompson estate, intimated to the ball club that the game could not be played on the grounds. The ball club people stated that the game was not played for the reason that they did not care to prejudice their case before the criminal court grand jury, which meets to-day, by playing a game which might be construed as a violation of Judge Melvin's injunction.

Interest is general in the action the grand jury will take in the base ball

THE GRAND JURY

Which Will be Chosen To-day, Has Some Work Cut Out for Itself.

The criminal court grand jury, which will be chosen to-day, has considerable work cut out for its consideration, including the Sunday base ball cases, the council bribery investigation, several felony cases and a number of misde-meanor cases. It is not likely that its deliberations will have concluded before Tuesday.

SOCIETY.

Wheeling friends of Lieutenant Guy Scott, U. S. A., received Saturday the following announcement of preaching marriage to Miss Lulu Gratproucing marriage to ansa late distributed to the control of San Francisco:

The Philharmonic Trio will assist in to-night's concert given at the Opera. House by the Woman's Musical Club, an additional feature that will prove a drawing factor, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the Fourth Street Methodist Episcopal church, will occur the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. I. Harrison Williams and Miss Elizabeth Gertrude Kyle. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. J. L. Sooy, pastor of the church. The groom will be attended by Mr. D. Walter Cochran as best man. The ushers for the occasion are Messrs. Harry Dunn, of Pittsburgh; Ed. Neff, Will Stevenson and Joe C. Boriand, of Wheeling. The contracting parties enjoy the acquaintance and esteem of a rge coterle of Wheeling's population. Miss Kyle, a daughter of the late John M. Kyle, has been identified with the Wheeling public schools as a successful teacher in Clay annex, is a musician of more than ordinary merit and finish, and possesses a charm and grace of manner which has made her very pop-ular in the large acquaintanceship she enjoys. Mr. Williams is connected with Vance Shoe Company in a position of trust, and is also favored with a legion of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will depart over the Wheeling & Lake Erie on Wednesday evening for Cleveland, and will visit Mackinac and other lake points. Upon their return they will be at home at Echo Point.

The closing concert of the season by the Woman's Club at the Opera House to-night, will furnish a treat for all lovers of music. An exceptionally fine programme has been prepared. It is egretted, however, that the delight of hearing the piano solo, "Chopin F, Minor Fantasie," by Mrs. Nellie Warren Holloway, is precluded by the very ser lous illness of her father, Mr. Isaiah Warren. Mrs. Frank LeMoyne Hupp, whom Musical Wheeling has not had the pleasure to hear as soloist, recently last night kindly consented to play the piano solo, and the additional treat of hearing the Philharmonic Trio, in the exquisite DeBeriot number of its repertoire, is also arranged for, through the courtesy of Prof. Schockey, Prof. Blumenberg and Mr. Meyer. So, taken all in all, the management has accomplished much to make this concert worthy the closing of five years' work of earnest undeavor. Beside the Choral Club, in its two beautiful numbers-accompanied Miss Kate McHenry, the performers Mrs. Flora Williams, Mrs. Herbert M. Riheldaffer, Miss Margaret Harvey, Miss Grace Pollack, Mrs. Fred F. Far. is, Miss Flora Stifel, Miss Eva Egerter, Miss Gertrude Riester, Miss Annie E. Pelley, and Mrs. J. H. Devore.

A JUVENILE WANDERER

Was the Protege of "Millionaire

John"-Was in the Philippines. "I shined guns, souhds en spuhs." This was the explanation given by a bright colored boy at the lockup last night for his connection with a New Jersey regiment in the Philippines. "My name's Tom Davis," said he in response to further questioning, "en I comes from Greenville, No'th Ca'lina."

The speaker said he was thirteen years old, but he looked older. He was fairly well dressed and had a little money in his pockets, the fruits of song-and-dance acts given in Pittsburgh, whence he came to Wheeling yesterday, "to pick up a job o' wuhk in dis town." Big-hearted Dan Ingram gave him shelter for the night, and this morning the youth will hustle around for work. From all appearances he is willing to work.

When the volunteer regiments were encamped at Greenville young Davis made himself useful generally to the members of the Fourth New Jersey, and he said he went with them to Trenton, N. J., later. After that, he claims, he went to the Philippines, but after a six months' stay he became sick and returned. He was unable to give definite information as to the names of the steamers or other data, but his hearers believed his story. For the Filipinos he expressed a mild contempt, stating that they were black all right, but not the kind of black people he likes.

Both his parents are dead, asserted the juvenile wanderer, and he said he 'was raised by Millionaire John, o' No'th Ca'lina, who moved away to the ol' country, but I dunno what place." Other than "Millionaire John" the name of his benefactor was an unfathomable mystery, but this fact is not strang. since "Tom" Davis is an illiterate col ored boy, who, as he puts it, "hes to hump it fo' hisself."

"THE BLACK KID"

Leaves His Card, but Takes the Money With Him.

RAYMOND, Cal., June 3.—The lone highwayman who yesterday held up three Yosemite stages and two wagons and two United States cavalrymen, is still at large. Additional details reveal that the number of people held up numbered 32, 27 men and five women numbered 32, 27 men and five women. Major Rucker and Captain Wiecox, U. S. A., with sixty-eight men of Troop F, who were on the way to Yosemite, reached the scene just as the robber was about to open the express box. Seeing the troopers, he disappeared in the brush.

The robber spoke with a Swedish accent, and his description corresponds with that of the men who held up two stages at Big Oak Flat on May 18. He gave the driver of one of the stages a card bearing the legend: "The Black Kld," saying: "I hope we will get botter acquainted, old man." From the three stages he collected about $250.

Gen. Otis Will Get Ashore.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3 .- If ther no further smallpox developments on the transport Meade, Gen E. S. and other cabin passengers will be leased from quarantise to-mrorow.

Wedz- ax of this week is the date of two conventions of great interest in Wheeling-one the Republican nominating convention of the First-congressional district at Weston, and the other the Democratic state nominating convention at Parkersburg. Both gatherings bid fair to be largely attended; at Parkersburg every room in every hotel in the town is already reserved. Although the Weston congressional convention will be of shorter duration and not of general interest throughout the state, yet Wheeling people, especially Republicans, will await the announcement of the result from the Lewis county town with eagerness.

The Ohio county delegation will go to on a special train secured through the endeavors of Congressman Dovener, and the Hancock, Brooke and Marshall delegations are also invited to take the special. The train will go via Fairmont and Clarksburg, and will stop at all ticket stations. The rate will be one and one-third fare for the round trip. The train leaves Wheeling at 4:45 p. m., to-morrow, and will reach Weston between 9 and 10 p. m. After the convention has adjourned, probably at 4 or 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the special will leave at once for Wheeling, and should arrive here about 9 or 10 p. m. Chairman Hornish, of the county committee, believes that nearly all of the Ohio county delegates will attend the convention.

Several of Captain Dovener's Ohio county lieutenants met in the McLure lobby last night, and discussed the situation. They were unable to discover where Judge Campbell has a chance to win, and they agreed that the strength of the two aspirants for the nomination would be as follows:

Dovener. Campbell, Brooke ... Boddridge Marshall Tyler Wetzel ... Total..... Dovener's majority. Necessary for choice

Of course the big fight in the convention will arise over the contest Braxton, where Judge Campbell's friends dissent from the action of the regularly called convention that chose Dovener delegates.

The Ohlo county Democrats will make the pilgrimage to the Parkersburg state nominating convention on the Urania, which has been chartered by "Joe" Handlan, the local candidate for audi-The boat will leave to-morrov evening about 9 o'clock, and is expected to reach the convention town early Wednesday morning. The delegation will be at home on the boat during the convention. This is doubtless a wise move, as the word comes that the Parkersburg hotels are all under reservation.

Probably there was never before so little public interest taken in the result of a state convention in West Virginia as is evinced in the Democratic convention. The party organ in Wheeling -"the leading Democratic newspaper in West Virginia," as a well known Ohio county Democrat designated it derisively last night-has yet to name the aspirants for the several nomina tions in the gift of the convention, probably because it doesn't know them. This Democrat himself, when asked for the "line-up" was unable to comply in "toto," and explained that he was only interested in the governorship. So far as can be learned the names mentioned for the several nominations are as follows:

Governor-Lewis N. Tavenner. Wood county; John H. Holt, of Cabell county; Daniel B. Lucas, of Jefferson county; Samuel L. Flournoy, of Kanawhn county.

Auditor-James M. Miller, of Summers county; Joseph Handian, of Ohio county, and two or three others. Supreme Judges-W. G. Bennett, of Lewis county: J. W. English, of Mason county; Henry Brannen, of Lewis coun-

Attorney General-John W. Davis, of Harrison county; George W. McCoy, of Tyler county.

Superintendent of Schools-Robert A. Armstrong, of Monongalia county; H. L. Swisher, of Monongalia county.

Here in Ohio county there is a m fight on between the supporters of Holt and Tavenner, and both sides claim to have the majority of the delegation Last night a well known supporter of Mr. Holt claimed to the Intelligencer that a poll had been taken Saturday afternoon at the meeting of the delegation, which had shown positively that at least thirty of the fifty delegates are for Holt. A week ago it looked though Tavenner would have the big end of Ohio county's bunch of fifty, and the Parkersburg judge's friends do not concede that they are in the minority in the delegation.

"Joe" Handlan's friends hope he will win the auditorial prize, but some fear "Jim" Miller, of Hinton, will prove too strong. Miller is well known all over the state, having been prominent in state politics for years, while Mr. Handlan is comparatively unknown, nd his canvass has not extended all

Mr. Fred Miller, of this city, has re ceived notification of his appointment as one of the doorkeepers at the national Republican convention, and has forwarded his acceptance. As "Fred" acted in the same capacity at St. Louis he will not be a new hand at the bus-

In Brooke county, on Saturday, delegates were chosen to the Republican state and congressional conventions. The delegates to the state convention are instructed for R. H. Cotton, of Brooke, for attorney general; for Samuel Atkinson for state treasurer, and are supposed to be for James K. Hall, for auditor. For the congressional convention, the Dovener men were successful in Wellsburg and Cross Creek districts, and the Campbell forces were winners in Buffalo district, giving Dovener six and Campbell three delegates. The convention was the largest ever held in the county.

Through the efforts of Colonel Hork heimer, one of West Virginia's delegates to the national convention, arrangements have been made through Passenger Agent T. C. Burke, of the Baltimore & Ohio, for a special sleeper, which will be run from Wheeling on No. 4, Saturday, June 16, via Fairmont and Grafton. Persons along the Baltimore & Ohio in this state desiring writing to Mr. Burke.

To-night, at I. O. O. F. hall, there will be a meeting of the colored Political Equality Club. The call states that the meeting is "to complete the work of the meeting of May 24."

The men were discovered after they had broken into a vacant store and were attempting to get into a clotting store. The aharm was given and four policemen chased them up through the tenement hallway and over the roofs. Three of the men attempted to make a descent to the ground by means of a tail pole standing close to one of the buildings. At least two of them fell from above the third story to the paved areaway below. Alexander Crowe, about 21 years old, was killed instantly, and William Dickson was found unconscious. It is thought that the other man fell on top of these two and was not injured. He made his escape, at any rate.

James Smith, 22 years old, was caught on the roof.

of Belmont County.

The Democratic county convention will be held at St. Clairsville next Thursday, and their primaries to select delegates to that convention and also to the congressional convention were held last Saturday evening. There was no excitement and not a hundred votes were cast in the entire city and township in making the selections. Indeed, in one precinct two votes elected seven delegates, alternates and a committeeman, and this is indicative of the sungral interest in Democratic matters this year. People are to busy to give much a few of the active boys are likely to make much noise as time passes.
